The home screen presents three panels: Active Cases, Pending Filings, and Alerts. Clicking a case number opens a split view where the docket, attached pleadings, and a quick-action toolbar appear side by side. The toolbar offers one-click options for filing a motion, ordering a transcript, or sending a secure message to the presiding judge. Alerts flag deadlines that are within 48 hours, helping attorneys prioritize urgent tasks. To file electronically, select "New Filing" from the toolbar, choose the appropriate court, and upload PDFs that comply with the 5MB size limit. The portal automatically validates format, page count, and required signatures. Once submitted, a confirmation number is generated; attorneys should copy this number into their case logs and verify receipt in the "Pending Filings" panel within 15 minutes. Beyond filing, the portal allows lawyers to set custom filters by case type, judge, or filing date to generate tailored docket reports. Export options include CSV and PDF, facilitating integration with case management software such as Clio or MyCase. For multi-jurisdictional matters, the "Cross-Court Search" feature aggregates records from Philadelphia, Allegheny, and other district courts, reducing the need for separate logins.
