When the 2000-era animated series Jackie Chan Adventures first aired, many viewers assumed the mystical Jade was voiced by a well-known Hollywood star. In reality, the role belongs to a seasoned voice-over talent whose work often goes unnoticed. This article clears up the most frequent errors about the Jade voice actor and offers precise information for newcomers curious about the series' behind-the-scenes talent. The character Jade was voiced by Michele "Michele Mason" Lee, a prolific voice-actress who also contributed to titles such as Power Rangers Turbo and Digimon Adventure. Lee's distinct, calm tone gave Jade the mystical presence the show needed, contrasting Jackie's high-energy antics. Her credits are listed in the series' official cast sheets, though the name often gets misspelled or conflated with "Michele Mann" in fan forums. Similarity to other Asian-inspired voices – The early 2000s featured many shows with "wise-elder" female roles, leading
