Imagine youâ€™ve just missed the registration deadline for a required course because the semesterâ€™s start date was recorded incorrectly. That scenario, all too common, usually stems from three core errors: Assuming the default view is sufficient. The default month view hides overlapping events, making conflicts hard to spot. Neglecting timeâ€™zone settings. Remote learners and visiting professors often schedule meetings in a different zone, leading to missed webinars. Relying on manual entries. Handâ€™typing event dates invites typos, especially for recurring sessions. Each of these slipâ€™ups can cascade into missed assignments, doubleâ€™booked study rooms, and unnecessary stress.
