For Fall term, the application window typically opens in early May and closes in early August; Spring applications run from September to early December. Financial aid packages must be accepted within two weeks of the offer date, and registration opens just a few days later. Missing any of these windows can push a student into waitlist status or trigger a late fee. Break the calendar into weekly tasks rather than a single deadline. For example: Week 1 (May/Sept): Review program requirements, compare course catalogs, and flag prerequisites. Week 3 (June/Oct): Log into myUCSD, verify personal information, and set up two-factor authentication. Week 4 (July/Nov): Submit any required supplemental documents (portfolio, test scores).
