careful handling and patience from owners, and it can delay the training process. The template you can use to help shape Dalmatian ears comes in the form of water ornaments. These water ornaments can be hung in your yard to provide a safe place for your puppy to explore and interact, while also allowing their ears to develop naturally. The idea is that as your Dalmatian pup plays and runs around, they will be naturally inclined to touch and paw at the water ornaments, helping their ears take on the shape you desire. The template is completely free, making it an affordable solution for dog owners on a tight budget.
