UCSB groups events under headings like Arts & Culture, Research & Lectures, and Student Life. Choose one—say, "Research & Lectures"—and uncheck the others. The page instantly refreshes, displaying only academic talks, lab tours, and seminar series. This focused view eliminates irrelevant pop-ups and lets you scan titles for keywords like "sustainability" or "entrepreneurship" without distraction. Enter a specific term into the search bar—e.g., "marine biology" or "open mic"—and hit enter. The system runs a real-time query across event titles, descriptions, and speaker names. For an added edge, add a hyphen to exclude terms (e.g., "music - classical" to avoid orchestral concerts). The result list now reflects only the events that truly match your personal agenda. Each event card contains an "Add to Calendar" icon that generates
